EAC trade.

Uganda through the Ministry of East African Community Affairs has undertaken a number of steps to promote the Integration of the EAC member states. This in turn has promoted Uganda's trade potential within the neighboring countries through the One stop border points that are located within the Bukedi Sub-region. The Sub-region has got two major One stop border points of Busia and Malaba. The table below shows the volume of Uganda's exports (informal and Formal) that the country has realized by the year 2023.

BORDER STATIONS	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023
Busia	514.3	334.7	274.7	379.2	474.0	481.4
Malaba Station	974.4	956.5	1,028.0	1,329.0	1,550.6	1,744.0
Total.	1,488.7	1,291.2	1,302.8	1,708.2	2,024.7	2,225.4

Generally, Uganda was able to realize USD 6,789.83m from the volume of exports from the various border across the country. The two border points of Busia and Malaba were able to support exports of up to USD 2,225.4 million which represents 33% of the overall export trade.
